

Orientation Program for International Students

№	Scope of activities	Objectives	Tasks	Outcome
Viza Information
1	About immigration	Understanding legal requirements	Information on visa duration, visa types, and student rights and responsibilities	Students will have obtained the information about the residence permit.
Information about living abroad
2	Introduction to student accommodation, mobile services, insurance, and banking services.		Using services around student accommodation, exchanging currency at the bank, and obtaining a mobile phone number.	Developing the ability to address issues related to the economy, security, and daily needs.
3	Police and healthcare services.	Anticipating issues related to police and healthcare services and providing assistance when necessary.	Providing information about police and healthcare services.	Gaining an understanding of safety and health.
University Operation
4	Student reception	Introducing to the team and encouraging student participation.	General introduction to the entire team and familiarization with materials, meeting with Mongolian language teachers, engaging in icebreaker games, and having friendly conversations.	Getting to know fellow students, department faculty, and professors, and learning to use communication channels and tools.

5	Familiarizing with the educational activities.	Explaining the rules and regulations of the curriculum and support services.	Familiarizing with the UNIMIS system, getting to know the Academic Affairs Office and the Office of Student Affairs, exploring the learning platform, and meeting with teachers and academic advisors.	Developing the ability to obtain information about course selection, course standards, exam guidelines, and timelines.
6	Familiarizing with the learning environment.	Introducing the student to the school's campus and environment.	Familiarizing with the library, learning classrooms, and halls, exploring the Science Museum and Geological Museum of the university, getting to know the health center, and visiting the cafeteria.	Understanding the organization of the classroom building. Receiving information and advice on how to access services at the Academic Affairs Office, Health Center, Library, and Cafeteria.
7	Familiarizing with the rules and regulations.	Explaining support and assistance services.	Regulations for the admission of international students.	Familiarizing with the legal framework and obtaining information.
8	Familiarizing with the student club.	Learning Mongolian language and gaining knowledge about its culture and traditions.	Familiarizing with the International Students' Club and participating in leisure activities and excursions.	Improving conversational skills outside of class and learning to express opinions.
9	Cultural adaptation	Adapting to a new culture and developing communication skill	Advice on understanding cultural differences, the lifestyle of nomadic herders, nomadic culture, traditions, and communication characteristics.	Familiarizing with the culture of the country, as well as the traditions and customs of the Mongolian people.
10	Q&A (Questions and Answer)	Answering students' questions.	Receiving feedback or suggestions.	Obtaining information that is of interest or necessary, and explaining one's situation.